

After 49 years of practice, Charles Gemmel, Esq. has retired from the practice of law on August 4, 2023. It has been our pleasure and honor to have worked with Mr. Gemmel as his partners over the last 23 years in his service of those in greater Southern New Jersey. We are pleased to announce that the law firm will continue to operate as Gemmel, Todd and Merenich, PA with both Molly Todd Merenich, Esq. and Robert Merenich, Esq. continuing as managing partners. We hope that you will think of continuing to use Gemmel, Todd and Merenich, PA if you need legal assistance in the future. Molly Todd Merenich, Esq. will be working in those areas practiced by Mr. Gemmel: Real Estate (Residential and Commercial), Corporate and Estate, Estate Planning and Wills.

When we announced earlier this year that Mr. Gemmel was moving to “Of counsel,” we indicated that we were working together with him to conclude his representation on active matters in his transition towards retirement. Over these past months we have attempted to introduce you to Molly Todd Merenich and, in many instances, she is fully familiar with, and has already worked on your file. Should you not wish Gemmel, Todd and Merenich, PA to represent you, you also have the option of selecting a new attorney elsewhere. We will work with you to ensure a smooth transition to a new attorney should that be the case. If you do have an active matter, we need to hear from you as soon as possible so as to ensure you effective ongoing representation.

Please contact us if you have any questions. You may continue to use the 609-927-7200 above. We know Mr. Gemmel, Esq. thanks you for allowing him to represent you in your legal matters over the past half century and we hope to carry on the tradition of his excellent service to both you and the bar.
